1. By Bulgarian law the Bulgarian frontier area is divided into two zones, the first from 0 to 2 kilometers from the border and the second from 2 to 30 kilometers from the border.
2. No one is permitted in the area from 0 to 500 meters from the border, not even peasants working on nearby farms. Anyone observed there is immediately shot without warning.
3. The most dangerous points in crossing the frontier area are at approximately two, 8-10, and 30 kilometers from the border as there are patrols or ambushes at approximately these points.
